Dear Mr. Simmons:

Thank you for your invitation to attend the Service Credit Union's 50th anniversary annual meeting. I regret that my Senate schedule does not permit me to be there with you tonight.

The many small institutions that make up your organization help secure the financial basis of the U.S. economy. They provide consumers with valuable services that allow them to manage their resources and provide for their financial well-being. I congratulate you on your many years of service and wish you continued success in your industry.

Please extend my best wishes to all those in attendance this evening.

Sincerely,
